Macroeconomics Stylized Facts
(prof. Dosi, dr. Roventini)

This short module introduces and discusses the empirical evidence robustly emerging (over the years and across countries) as far as economic growth, development; and the business cycle are concerned. It aims at identifying stylized facts that are (or should be) the targets of macroeconomics theoretical models.

1. Growth and development (Dosi)

References:
• Additional references will be given in class

2. Business Cycles (Roventini)

References:
• Zarnowitz, V. (1985), “Recent works on business cycles in

Additional references will be given in class